Statement of Disputed Facts

1. Piper represented and gave legal advice to Norkin individually in connection with all dealings between Britestarr and ABB.

2. Piper represented and gave legal advice to Norkin individually in connection with his bankruptcy, and an ownership dispute involving Britestarr's shares.

3. Piper attorneys told Norkin that because Britestarr was a subchapter S corporation, and Norkin was the sole shareholder, Piper represented Norkin as well as Britestarr.

4. In March 2002, had Norkin been informed that ABB was willing to settle on the same terms proposed in the March 2001 settlement offer, Norkin would have accepted ABB's offer rather than resigning from Britestarr and putting Britestarr into bankruptcy.
